

GAGAKU

don't want to be bothered?
unplug the phone

mine's unplugged right now this isn't to make me important for I only average a phone call each 1/2 week

believe it or not I've arranged my life so

twice a week for
a phone ring

it's always someone different too

now demons point at me blaming me for something

now for some reason
they point at themselves

now what they're doing
is undescribable

for their gnarled talon is about 5 or 6 feet long and curled around curved around
 like a boomerang
 toward themselves

wish I could do that I'd go to the venice boardwalk and become rich
 finally

GAGAKU

if you get cocky
 just
 send some
 odes
 with an S
